Custom clothing Creation

I provide a made-to-measure clothing design and construction service, prioritising enduring style and quality.

From fabric and style choices to fit and finishing, the personalised process results in go-to garments that you love to wear.

Design fees are inclusive of consultation, fabric sourcing, and made-to-measure patternmaking for the design. Complex designs will require me to make a trial garment to check for fit. This will be included in your quote.

Your personalised patterns are kept on file, allowing for discounted rates on future makes.

Construction is marked down when more than one garment of the same design is ordered.

Fabric costs will be calculated on sourcing and consultation, and added to your quote.

Alterations and Refashions

“When you love what you have, you have everything you need.”

As your garments wash and wear, they may need a little care. Your seams and I can lovingly accommodate the need for fit tweaks. Wear and tear are (mostly) easily addressed, and a refashion can bring a dormant garment back into circulation.

Alteration charges are dependent on complexity ~ please chat with me about your needs.
